

J. Taft Symonds

Taft Symonds has been chairman of Tetra Technologies, Inc, a oilfield services company based in Houston, since 1993 and Symonds Trust Co. Ltd., a private investment company, since 1978. He holds a Bachelor of Arts from Stanford University and a master of business administration from the Harvard Business School.

His business experience prior to 1978 includes five years with the Robert Fleming Group of Companies in merchant banking in New York, London, and Hong Kong; five years with Paine Webber in London and New York; and five years with a major consortium bank, Banque de la Societe Financiere European, in Paris and New York.

Symonds serves as a chairman of Tetra Technologies Inc., and is a director of, Plains All American Pipeline GP, LLC. He serves as Chairman of the Houston Arboretum and Nature Center and is a member of the Board of the AMMA Foundation, and the Architecture Advisory Board at Rice University. He is a former Trustee of the Hill School and the Asia Society.